VOLLEYBALL FACILITIES

Over the last several years, Morehead State has overhauled the practice and game facilities for the volleyball team at Wetherby Gym. The hardwood floor was recently resurfaced and new windows, lights and scoreboards have been added. The floor received a facelift in 2008 with a new volleyball-only outline painted on the surface. The building was originally completed in 1955 and was named for then-Governor Lawrence Wetherby.

The 3,500-seat facility was the home of the MSU basketball programs from 1955-82, when the two teams moved into the Academic-Athletic Center. Within the facility lies the volleyball team's newly-renovated locker room and team lounge/video room, plus visiting locker rooms and an officials' locker room, an equipment storage area, a laundry room, a concessions area and a training room.

The volleyball coaching staff also has spacious new offices in Wetherby Gym, providing convenience and accessibility. Overall, Wetherby Gym provides the Eagles with an excellent facility and home court advantage and is one of the largest volleyball-only arenas in the OVC and the nation.

The Eagles' spacious locker room is located just steps from the Wetherby Gym Court with ample locker space for each player.

EXPECTATIONS RUN HIGH for 2008 Volleyball Eagles

With about 90 percent of the players returning from an Ohio Valley Conference championship season, expectations are as high as they can be for the 2008 edition of the Morehead State volleyball team. Except this season, they feel like there is unfinished business they'll need to take care of at the end of the year.

MSU finished 22-12 in 2007 and claimed a share of their second OVC regular season title in five years, but the Eagles also missed out on a chance for an outright OVC regular season title and couldn't wrap up the tournament championship either, falling in the title match. This season, the winning attitude has grown stronger, the roster talent has been multiplied, and MSU will stop at nothing short of a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

"We talk a great deal about expectations with our team and they come into the gym everyday with the purpose of being a champion," said sixth-year head coach Jaime Gordon. "I believe that the key component is the understanding of what it takes to compete for a conference title in the OVC. This team knows how difficult it is to be at the top and respects the process."

The process begins with a framework for success. Four seniors, including three who have three years experience at MSU, will be counted upon for leadership. Two of those seniors were First-Team All-OVC performers in 2007 and another was a Second-Team honoree. The Eagles also return a record-setting libero on the back line and have beefed up the talent level on the outside and in the middle. Gordon realizes that the pieces are in place but says it will take another year of extremely hard work to compete for another title.

"We are fortunate to return a good amount of experience to the floor this season. I think it is important to realize that we have so far to go and so much work to do in order to be in a position to qualify for the OVC tournament and compete for a title," he said.

A position-by-position breakdown reveals that the Eagles have veterans at every slot on the floor.

THE OUTSIDE HITTERS

Retuning All-Conference senior Ashley Doscher leads a solid group of outside hitters. Doscher led the team and ranked in the top 10 in the conference in kills last year with 461 and has more than 1,000 kills for her career. She has been the go-to player for three years now and should continue to provide solid numbers and excitement.

"We talk a great deal about expectations with our team and they come into the gym every day with the purpose of being a champion,"

Also back for her sophomore year is Kaitlin Craven. She posted impressive numbers for a true freshman in 2007, ranking third on the team with 378 kills. Craven was also named to the OVC All-Newcomer Team.

The Eagles will also have the services of freshman Liz Schuler this season. Coming from a solid high school program at Holy Cross in Louisville, Ky., Schuler should be able to step in and become another threat for the Eagle attack. She'll also see time most likely on the right side attack as well. The Eagles' offense is set up for players to be successful at several different positions on the floor.

"In order for any team to be successful they have to be able to provide consistency on the outside. Having both starters (Doscher and Craven) from last year returning will allow us to have a leg up on that goal. We have a very balanced attack from two very different style of hitters which makes it a challenge for our opponents to prepare for," said Gordon. "I am also excited to bring in depth to the position with Liz Schuler. She is a very dynamic attacker with a heavy hand. I think she will be able to provide us with options both on the left and right sides."

IN THE MIDDLE

MSU is solid again in the middle with senior Erin Peak leading the way. The team's leading percentage attacker and equally as good as a blocker and on defense, Peak was named First-Team All-OVC last year when she posted 405 kills, 322 digs and 95 total blocks.

Also in the middle will be a duo of talented and tall hitters and blockers. Holly Evans saw very limited action in 2007 but showed untapped potential when she did get a chance. She will be joined by redshirt freshman Emma Keough, who used 2007 as a valuable off-season to get prepared for the collegiate game. Gordon is excited about the overall balance his middles show this year and believes that it will be a tough area for opponents to defend.

"We have a balance of experience, exciting youth, and versatility in the middle. Erin has had a fantastic career so far, and we look for her senior year to be her best. She is so well rounded that it makes her hard to defend. I am excited to have Emma and Holly stepping in to the role as well. They are able to hit from every zone of the net, and will compliment Erin well. They both had fantastic springs, and I look for them to have breakout seasons."

THE RIGHT SIDE HITTERS

MSU may be able to surprise some teams with its balance on the right side this year. Senior Monika Jaroszewicz returns after a knee injury forced her miss a majority of her junior year. A fierce hitter with a powerful and evasive serve, she should be able to provide a dynamic offense threat. In just 17 games and a limited number of serve opportunities, she landed 10 aces last year.

Gordon will also look for Schuler to get some opportunities on the right side attack, and he may even utilize all-conference setter Katelyn Barbour as an attacker this year. Barbour is athletic enough to handle a variety of duties. Also returning is Leah Duncan for her junior year after transferring in from Rice University last fall.

"The right side attack will be one that can provide us with a variety of options. Monika was plagued by a knee injury last year, and we look forward to having her heavy hand out there. We also will be able to utilize some of our middles out there along with Liz," said Gordon. "We have been working with Katelyn Barbour as an attacker this spring, and I think she will be able to surprise some people with what she can do. I think we will be able to do a lot with our line up based on match-ups."

THE DEFENSE

The back line is again very solid with record-setting libero Kristina Schoo leading a group of three defensive specialists. Schoo set the MSU sophomore record with 589 digs last year and with another year of experience, she is ready for an even greater role in 2008. Schoo is also effective on the serve, leading the team with 53 aces last year.

Lindsey Ruddell saw limited action in her first two years, but she has worked hard and is looking ready to provide even more solid depth in 2008. The Eagles have another option on the back line with walk-on freshman Allison McElveen.

"Defensively we've got a great core with Kristina finishing up another record breaking season, and Lindsey really making some tremendous strides this spring. We will also have the addition of Allison McElveen who will add depth back there as well as on the outside."

THE SETTERS

Of all the positions on the floor, the one that may be the most important to making the schemes work is the setter, and the Eagles have not one, but two of the best in the OVC.

Barbour is finishing a career this year that has her in position to possible challenge for the MSU and OVC record for assists. But, she's not only a talented setter and the "quarterback" of the attack, she's also a quadruple threat. Barbour had 1,535 assists last year, 403 digs, 36 aces and 49 total blocks. And, she may add the fifth dimension this year as an attacker.

The Eagles also return sophomore Kirstie Brangers, and she will have an expanded role this year as MSU's utilizes a two-setter set. Brangers showed great potential as a setter as a true freshman, but also contributed the most probably as a defender and a server. She posted 222 digs and landed 52 aces, including six in a match twice.

"I am so very excited about the setting position this year. We have Katelyn who is coming off of a great junior season, and Kirstie who had a phenomenal spring. Expect us to be utilizing both setters a great deal this season. This versatility on the floor will be fun to watch," said Gordon.

JAIME GORDON

POSITION: Head Coach EDUCATION: University of Kentucky (1994)
CAREER COLLEGIATE RECORD: 180-122

Jaime Gordon enters his sixth year in Morehead and is coming off a season in which he led the Eagles to a share of the Ohio Valley Conference regular season championship. In his first five seasons leading the MSU program, Gordon has guided the Eagles to three 20-win seasons.

Gordon made an instant impact in his first year as the head coach of the Morehead State women's volleyball program in 2003. He became the only Eagle mentor to lead MSU to an Ohio Valley Conference crown in his first season at the helm and boasted the second-best winning percentage of any MSU volleyball first-year head coach. Capping off the 21-11 campaign and school record 14-2 league mark, Gordon received the OVC Coach of the Year honor, becoming just the third Morehead State mentor to secure that accolade. His 2006 team was 21-13 while in 2007, he led MSU to a 22-12 record and a 15-5 league record.

Gordon came to MSU in April 2003 after a successful four-year stint as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Kentucky. From 1999-2002, he handled much of the on-court practice and match coaching, coordinated the team's scouting and worked directly with the middle blockers.

He also spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons as a volunteer assistant at UK. The 1993 team was one of the most successful in school history, finishing 29-4 and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. In his six years with the program, Kentucky collected 90 wins, including 41 in the highly-competitive Southeastern Conference, and was regionally ranked in four of those seasons. In between his stints with the Wildcats, he coached West Virginia Wesleyan to an 80-27 record. From 1996 to 1998, he helped lead the perennial-powerhouse Bobcats to two conference championships, two NCAA Tournament berths and appearances in the top 25 rankings.

During his tenure at WVWC, he coached two academic all-district performers, 15 all-conference and seven all-region players, plus two conference Players of the Year. His team earned the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Team Academic Award, and individually, he was honored as the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1996. He also was the runner-up for regional Coach of the Year honors that same season.

His 1996 team was ranked 19th by the AVCA, after posting a 35-6 overall record and a perfect 17-0 conference mark. Those 17 wins were part of a victory streak that reached 106 straight, a Division II record. The Bobcats ended up winning their sixth straight West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) title and advanced to the first-round of the NCAA Tournament, where they lost in three games to Edinboro. That season, West Virginia Wesleyan led the nation in digs per game.

In 1997, he guided the club to a 23-12 record, a seventh consecutive WVIAC title and another berth in the NCAA Tournament, where this time they took Edinboro to five games before falling in the opening round. His 1998 team went 22-9 and finished 10-5 in conference play.

While at WVWC, he also served as a physical education instructor and was a member of the President's Facilities Committee.

In his final two seasons, he also served as the conference's executive assistant for volleyball. Those same two years, he was a voter for the AVCA's national Division II poll, and an NCAA regional representative, where he was involved in recommending teams, sites and officials to the NCAA Championship Selection Committee.

During the 1996 Atlanta Olympics, he served as a Field of Play Marshall. There, he was in charge of managing and assigning a portion of the competition area, and ensuring the safety of the athletes and spectators during matches.

His first head coaching experience came in 1995 as he led Lexington's Henry Clay High School to the Kentucky state tournament. That team finished 28-6 and was the regional runner-up, as well as the Fayette County regular-season and tournament champion. It was the first state tournament appearance for a Fayette County team. In 1994, he was an assistant coach at Henry Clay, helping that squad to a 25-6 record, a third-place regional finish, and Fayette County regular-season and tournament titles. That year, he also was the head coach of the Thoroughbred Volleyball Club 18 & Under team.

A three-time graduate of the University of Kentucky, he earned bachelor's degrees in architecture in 1994 and art history in 1996. He also received a master's in sport management in 1996 and has worked toward an MBA. He is a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) and is the OVC representative to the AVCA Head Coaches Committee.

As a player, he spent six years as a member of the nationally-ranked Kentucky men's club team. He served as a three-year team captain and was selected to the 1994 U.S. Olympic Festival Team as an alternate. In addition, he established and served as Commissioner of the Ohio Volleyball Conference from 1994-96. He also served as Director of Volleyball Operations for Hard Spike, Inc., in Lexington, and has worked numerous camps across the nation.

A two-year high school letterwinner in his native Teaneck, N.J., Gordon was named all-state as a senior.

Outside of his volleyball experiences, he is an accomplished concert and jazz musician, and has served on the board of the American Heart Association and the Andover Neighborhood Association.

NCAA VOLLEYBALL RULES CHANGES FOR 2008

Fans will notice evidence of several rule changes being implemented for the upcoming 2008 volleyball season. A few significant changes are as follows (courtesy of the AVCA):

TERMINOLOGY

The term "game" has been changed to "set". A match will still continue to consist of best three-out-of-five set victories.

POINTS REQUIRED TO WIN A SET

Instead of 30 points, the number of points needed to win sets ONE through FOUR is now 25 (must win by two point). Fifteen points (with two-point advantage) is still the requirement to win the deciding FIFTH set, if necessary.

SUBSTITUTIONS

Each team is now allowed a maximum of 12 substitutions per set.

COACHES POSITION

When the ball is in play, coaches will be asked to stay at least 1.75 meters from the court's sideline. An imaginary line perpendicular to the outside edge of the extended attack line indicates this distance. If a coach doesn't comply, the referees may assess a team delay sanction.

BALL HANDLING DECISIONS

In recent years, referee training has emphasized focusing on the player's contact point with the ball, and not allowing outside influences, such as spin after release, to influence ball handling decisions. A 2008 point of emphasis regarding the second team contact (usually a set attempt) now instructs referees to only call multiple contacts that are obvious enough to be readily seen, and to be less severe when judging.

THE OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

Entering its 61st year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference. In 2008, for only the second time in the past decade, the Conference expanded by adding Southern Illinois University Edwardsville as the league's 11th member. The move expanded the OVC's geographical footprint to the St. Louis market and marked the first change in membership since expanding to the state of Alabama (Jacksonville State, Samford) in 2003.

The OVC's proud past dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles (Turkey) Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958, Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961, Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

Through the past 60 years, 14 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 19 outright or shared football crowns, including the 2007 championship when they compiled a perfect 8-0 league record. Former OVC member Middle Tennessee is next with 11, followed by Tennessee Tech with nine, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece. Eastern Illinois has claimed four football crowns (including winning the title outright in 2005 and sharing the crown with UT Martin in 2006) while Jacksonville State, Morehead State, Tennessee State and former members Evansville and East Tennessee State have captured two apiece. Austin Peay, UT Martin (which captured its first crown in 2006) and former member Youngstown State have one title apiece.

The OVC's first volleyball tournament was held in 1981, the same year Eastern Kentucky began a string of six straight tournament crowns. Former EKV skipper Dr. Geri Polvino compiled a 627-439 record in 32 seasons as head coach of the Colonels, earning OVC Coach of the Year honors eight times. More recently, former Austin Peay coach Cheryl Holt and former Southeast Missouri skipper Cindy Gannon also earned their peers' recognition multiple times with four awards each.

Throughout the last 26 years, 10 different teams have won an OVC regular-season or tournament volleyball crown. Since joining the league in 1991, Southeast Missouri has dominated the scene, winning seven of its eight regular-season titles during the 1990's, including five straight from 1993-97. The Redhawks have also won five tournament crowns (1994, 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). Jacksonville State was won back-to-back OVC Tournament Championships (2005, 2006) including going through the OVC undefeated (16-0) in 2006, while Tennessee State claimed its first volleyball tournament championship in 2008.

Following the 2007 season, Jacksonville State's Abbey Breit was named the OVC Offensive Player of the Year for the third straight season, becoming the first player in OVC history to accomplish that feat. Four other individuals - Eastern Kentucky's Angela Boykins (1985-86), Morehead State's Dayle Hammontree (1988-89), Southeast Missouri's Tuba Meto (1996-97) and Morehead State's Amy Almond (2001-02) - were back-to-back winners of the award.

Over its 60 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who was a member of the 2004 United States Olympic Rifle Team. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as football's Phil Simms (Morehead State), basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball player Trenton Hassell (Austin Peay), football player Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois), baseball players Jamie Walker (Austin Peay) and George Sherrill (Austin Peay) and professional golfer Jeff Sluman (Tennessee Tech).

In 2007 the Conference had two teams in the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament for the first time in league history, former OVC member Samford earned an at-large selection while Southeast Missouri was the Conference's automatic bid.

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year.

The playing field isn't the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic Achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its sixth decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Both a standout basketball and volleyball player during her days at MSU, Debbie Ames was the first female inducted into the MSU Hall of Fame. Her volleyball teams went 112-24-2 and won two KWIC titles in four years. As a senior, the Eagles placed third at the AIAW national regionals. On the basketball court, Ames became the first Lady Eagle to score 1,000 career points and ranks among the school's all-time leaders in both points and rebounds.

SUE CAULKINS

(1976-79) Class of 1996

Sue Caulkins was one of the top early players in MSU volleyball history. Caulkins was named to the KWIC state all-tournament team in 1977, 1978 and 1979. Her squads won the 1976 state title and finished as the runner-up in 1977 and 1979. The Eagles also advanced to the AIAW Region II tournament in 1977 and 1979, finishing third both times. Along the way, Caulkins' teams posted a 116-35-7 record and included three 30-win seasons.

DAYLE HAMONTREE

(1987-90) Class of 2001

The only four-time first-team All-OVC selection in team history, Dayle Hamontree guided the Eagles to a 110-33 overall and 41-4 league record during her career. The 1988 and 1989 conference Player of the Year helped MSU to three league regular season and one conference tournament title, while earning the 1988 OVC Tournament MVP. She holds MSU's single-match records in service aces and kills, and also tops the Eagle's career service ace mark.

MARTHA RUST

(1979-82) Class of 1994

Martha Rust was the first player to be awarded a full volleyball scholarship. She received all-regional tournament and OVC Scholar-Athlete honors during her career. In those seasons, the Eagles compiled a 113-63 mark. Her senior year, MSU had its most wins ever with 38. Rust holds the school single-season and career hitting percentage, and single-season solo block records, as well as the OVC single-season hitting percentage mark. Rust also played three seasons of basketball at MSU.

LARADEAN BROWN

Laradean Brown was the first head coach in the history of MSU volleyball. In her nine years at the helm (1972-80), Brown's squads won nearly 200 matches (193-60-7), had a winning percentage of .763 and were the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference (KWIC) champions three times. Three of her other teams finished as league runners-up, while the 1977 and 1979 squads placed third in the regionals of the AIAW national tournament.

MISSY BLANFORD

(1986-89) Class of 2002

Missy Blanford is the Eagles' only Academic All-American, earning the second-team honor in 1989, the same year she was named as the OVC Tournament's MVP. She also was awarded the league's Medal of Honor in 1989. One of only three Eagles to earn three first-team all-conference honors, Blanford helped lead MSU to three OVC regular-season titles and the 1987 league tournament crown. She ranks among the MSU career leaders in assists and service aces.

WELCOME to Morehead State University

Meeting the educational needs of East Kentucky while striving to constantly improve the quality of its public service, economic development and applied research programs are the primary objectives of Morehead State University. Historically, the University traces its lineage to the Morehead Normal School, which opened its doors in 1887. The private school closed in the spring of 1922 when the Kentucky General Assembly established Morehead State Normal School. The state institution accepted its first students in the fall of 1923 and graduated its first class in 1927. Name changes occurred in 1926 when "and Teachers College" was added, again in 1930 when it was shortened to Morehead State Teachers College, again in 1948 when "Teachers" was dropped and, finally, to university status in 1966. Thirteen men, starting with Frank C. Button, have served as president. Dr. Wayne D. Andrews assumed office as the 13th president on Jan. 1, 2005.

Academically, the University offers 79 undergraduate degree programs, including 8 associate level degrees and 12 pre-professional programs in four colleges, Business, Education, Caudill College of Humanities and Science and Technology, and the Institute for Regional Analysis and Public Policy and 20 academic departments. There are 55 graduate degree programs plus 24 graduate level non-degree programs designed especially for professional educators. The education specialist in five specialty areas also is offered. A master's degree for physician assistants, social workers and a cooperative doctoral program, all with the University of Kentucky, are available on the MSU campus.

Classes are conducted in Ashland, Jackson, Maysville, Mt. Sterling, Pikeville, Prestonsburg, West Liberty and other locations. Regional campuses located in Ashland, Jackson, Mt. Sterling, Prestonsburg and West Liberty are staffed with full-time directors. Additionally, the University offers a number of distance learning courses throughout the region via the Internet and interactive compressed video.

Sixty-one percent of MSU's 384 full-time faculty members hold doctoral degrees.

Physically, the University is located in the foothills of the Daniel Boone National Forest in Rowan County. The nearly 500-acre main campus within the city limits of Morehead includes more than 50 major structures with a total replacement value of more than $144 million. Beyond the city, the University's real estate holdings include the 320-acre Derrickson Agricultural complex and the par 72, 6,902-yard Eagle Trace Golf Course. The instructional plant includes 120 classrooms and 112 laboratories. Housing facilities include space for approximately 2,600 students in a variety of housing styles including traditional residence halls, suites and apartments.

Fiscally, the University currently operates on an annual budget of $109.8 million with about $44.8 million provided by the state and $45.4 million coming from tuition and fees. Additionally, grants and contracts from external sources for research, service and academic/student support projects generate more than $12 million each year. Annual private donations to the University, through the MSU Foundation, Inc., average $3 million annually.

Statistically, the University has awarded more than 50,000 degrees and currently has more than 1,100 full-time employees. Enrollment for fall 2007 was 9,066, with the student body representing 100 Kentucky counties, 39 states and 27 foreign countries. The University attracts more than 50,000 visitors annually and its economic impact, directly and indirectly, on the Morehead area is estimated at more than $80 million yearly.

Administratively, an 11-member Board of Regents governs the University with eight citizens appointed by the governor and three seats held by elected faculty, staff and student representatives. Management of the institution is vested primarily in six divisions Academic Affairs, Administration and Fiscal Services, Development, Planning, Budgets and Technology, Student Life, and University Relations with each headed by a vice president.

Athletically, the University sponsors 18 intercollegiate sports for men and women in accordance with the regulations of the Ohio Valley Conference, the Pioneer Football League and Division I of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. MSU also supports an intramural program involving more than 25 team and individual sports.

ACADEMICS at Morehead State

One of the most important aspects of the student-athlete's experience at Morehead State is academics, and the athletic department has excellent facilities and staff to provide MSU student-athletes with the best possible technology and know-how to help them succeed in the classroom.

A new state-of-the-art computer center and resource center, which was also recently updated in 2008, are now available in the Academic-Athletic Center. Academic Athletic Coordinator Valerie Ousley and her staff of students and volunteers also provide academic monitoring, tutoring and counseling in the new Academic Center.

Academically, the University offers 96 degree programs and pre-professional programs through four colleges, Business, Education, Caudill College of Humanities and Science and Technology, and the Institute for Regional Analysis and Public Policy.

On a year-by-year basis, Morehead State student-athletes continually rank among the best in the Ohio Valley Conference, and the athletic department again won the OVC's Institutional Academic Achievement Award, presented by Aeropostale, for 2006-07 - the third year in a row MSU has won the league's highest academic honor. In all, MSU has now claimed eight OVC Academic Achievement Awards, tying Eastern Kentucky for the most in league history. In addition, the Morehead State women's basketball, women's tennis, baseball, men's tennis, softball and men's track teams have each won the OVC individual sport Academic Achievement Award for having the highest percentage of student-athletes named to the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll in the last three years. The rifle team was named an All-Academic Team by the National Collegiate Rifle Coaches Association and soccer's Rachel Kendall was named Academic All-Region by the NSCAA.

The MSU athletic department also has had a large number of student-athletes awarded an Ohio Valley Conference Medal of Honor.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Sports Medicine Program at Morehead State offers student-athletes the most up-to-date professional services available. Led by head trainer for men's sports Jamey Carver and head trainer for women's sports Sara Larson, the Sports Medicine Department allows athletes a wide range of options for treatment and rehabilitation of injuries.

One of the major support services offered is the main athletic training room located adjacent to Jayne Stadium. The facility contains four whirlpools, four electric stimulators, four ultrasound units and nine treatment tables, along with a variety of other services and equipment. Each athletic team has a full-time or graduate assistant athletic trainer assigned to them, and each of MSU's trainers are fully trained and accredited to perform life-saving and injury treatments. The training staff also utilizes two remote facilities in the Academic-Athletic Center and Wetherby Gym. Both facilities have state-of-the-art equipment.

The training staff also works closely with the Caudill Health Clinic on campus in Allie Young Hall and with St. Claire Regional Medical Center.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The strength and conditioning program at Morehead State provides student-athletes with the best possible physical and mental training to help them perform at their peak potential. Under the direction of fourth-year coach Kevin Deweese, the individual sport programs focus on physical and mental training and nutrition for that particular sport as well as particular athletes. Deweese and his staff develop programs that will help athletes reach their maximum potential and prevent injuries.

Athletes have several options for weight training with the centerpiece of the program being the Phil Simms Weight Training Center. Funded by former Morehead State and NFL star quarterback Phil Simms, the center houses weight machines and free weights and is located adjacent to Jayne Stadium. The center has ample space for several teams to train at the same time.

Athletes also utilize the weight center in the Academic-Athletic Center. Free weights, as well as state-of-art machines, are located in the facility.

Stressing the whole body, the strength and conditioning program at Morehead State also helps athletes reach their potential in the fields of agility and speed. Deweese and his staff make sure athletes are ready for game action with speed drills and agility training tailored to each sport. The staff also oversees off-season workouts and nutrition programs to make sure Eagle student-athletes are in-shape when the season begins.

Deweese came to Morehead after serving as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. With the Mocs' athletic program, he was in charge of several aspects of the overall program for all sports. He was also instrumental in nutrition counseling for UTC's athletic teams.

Prior to UTC, Deweese served as an assistant in the University of Kentucky strength and conditioning program for football from 2003-2005. He was in charge of several facets of the football strength program, including weight training, injury rehabilitation, pre-game

NCAA COMPLIANCE ADDRESS

Dear Friends:

Morehead State University is committed to upholding the highest integrity within all procedures and practices of the athletic department. We are pleased to publish this note as a reference to understanding often confusing NCAA regulations. The NCAA defines "representatives of athletic interests" as alumni, friends and boosters of the University. All member institutions are held accountable for their representatives' actions. One violation could jeopardize the eligibility of any or all Eagle athletic programs.

As a general rule, anyone who has financially supported Eagle Athletics, been a member of any booster organization, or who has supported Eagle Athletics is considered a "representative" of Eagle Athletics.

Prospective student-athletes can be defined as a student who has started classes in the ninth grade or any younger student-athlete who has received a benefit from the institution. These individuals may only be recruited by MSU coaches who have passed the NCAA Recruiting Rules Examination. While "representatives" of Eagle Athletics may speak to any of these individuals via telephone or in person, a recruiting effort must not be made. Also, no student-athlete or prospective student-athlete may receive any extra benefit outside of the support provided by the institution. For any questions regarding this description, please contact me at 606-783-5136.

These are certainly not all the regulations any "representative" of Eagle Athletics must remember. However, they provide a good outline of the types of things that could endanger the eligibility of any MSU Athletics program. Again, feel free to contact us if you have any questions. Thanks again for your support of Morehead State Athletics.

Sincerely,

Richard Fletcher

Associate Director of Athletics/Compliance

MOREHEAD and the Gateway Region

Morehead, Ky., is a community of nearly 10,000, nestled in the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains in the Daniel Boone National Forest. It serves as the educational, medical, recreational and cultural center of rural northeast Kentucky and is located in the state's Gateway Area. Morehead also is known as the "Hardwood Capital of the World." Situated on the state's major east-west highway, Interstate 64, Morehead is 58 miles west of Ashland, Ky., and the border of West Virginia, and 66 miles east of Kentucky's second-most populated city, Lexington.

Its centralized location allows many parts of the Eastern and Midwestern United States to be readily accessible. Among the major cities within a day's drive are Washington, D.C.; Baltimore; Charlotte; Raleigh, N.C.; Atlanta; Knoxville, Tenn.; Nashville; Cincinnati; Dayton, Ohio; Columbus, Ohio; Cleveland; Pittsburgh; Indianapolis; Detroit; Chicago; St. Louis; Memphis; Birmingham, Ala.; and Louisville, Ky.

Located in the heart of Rowan County, Morehead affords a wealth of activities for the outdoorsman. Just six miles from downtown is beautiful 8,270-acre, man-made Cave Run Lake, an area nationally-known for its recreation opportunities and the fifth-largest body of water in Kentucky. Hiking, biking, swimming, boating, fishing, water skiing, canoeing, bird watching, camping or enjoying the solitude of nature are some of the highlights of the activities at Cave Run Lake. The lake is known as the “Muskie Fishing Capital of the South” and hosts numerous tournaments each year. Daniel Boone National Forest, within which Cave Run Lake is entirely located, is visited by over five million people annually, and Morehead also is home to the Minor E. Clark Fish Hatchery, the largest fresh water fish hatchery in the U.S.

Carter Caves, just 25 miles from Morehead in nearby Carter County, is another popular outdoor spot just a short drive down I-64. The historic town of Maysville, Ky., a major stopover point on the Civil War-era Underground Railroad, is located 45 minutes north on the Ohio River, and offers more entertainment options.

Golf is another popular outdoor activity in Morehead. Two courses are within county limits. Eagle Trace Golf Course is an 18-hole, par-72 course, which has hosted both the state’s men’s and women’s amateur championship and has been given four stars by Golf Digest. Sheltowee Trail Golf Course is open to the public and offers inexpensive opportunities which can challenge players of all skill levels.

| PROPOSED ATHLETIC FACILITY EXPANSION |

A VISION FOR THE FUTURE

Morehead State's Athletic Facility Master Plan

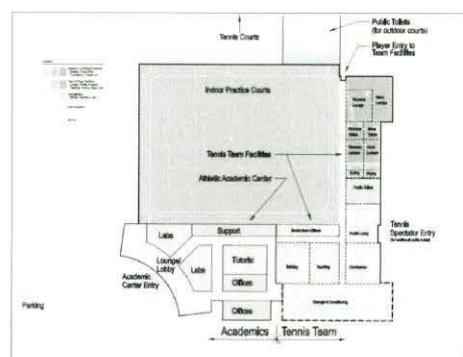

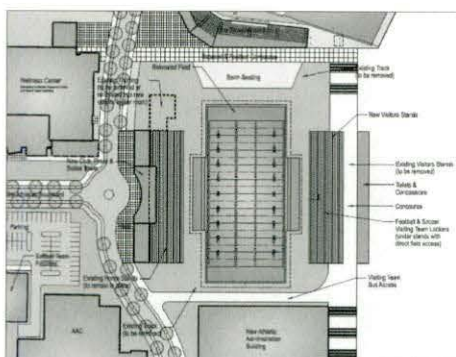

Through administrative and athletic leadership at Morehead State, a study of athletics facilities commenced in the winter of 2006 to identify a plan that would guide decisions made by MSU Athletics well into the 21st century. Heery International, acclaimed architects and facilities planners, was selected to complete the study.

All potential constituent groups were consulted throughout the process. While MSU has much to be proud of, it became quite apparent that significant work should be done to improve the physical athletics plant.

The drawing you see here provides a map of what is to come. In all, over $89 million of work was identified and encompasses five new facilities and five renovated facilities. The first scheduled work will be the renovation of the University's Wellness Center into a state-of-the-art Athletics Academic Resource Building.

For more information or if you'd like to help MSU realize these goals, please contact MSU Director of Athletics Brian Hutchinson at b.hutchinson@moreheadstate.edu or at 606-783-2089.
